

Measures to protect visitors against COVID-19 during their visit to the Centre of Antiquity

Rheinisches Landesmuseum Trier and Roman Monuments

Dear visitors,

Your health is important to us! Below you can find hygiene and safety measures to follow, as well as information about current restrictions on the range of services in the Rheinisches Landesmuseum Trier and the Trier Roman Monuments.

We look forward to welcoming you to our sites and would be incredibly grateful if you could follow these measures when visiting the Rheinisches Landesmuseum Trier and Trier Roman Monuments.

General hygiene and safety measures

- On the basis of the 11th Rhineland-Palatinate Coronavirus Control Regulation, each visitor must leave their contact details to allow for a contact tracing to break any potential chains of infection.
- Visitors must wear a face mask when visiting the Rheinisches Landesmuseum Trier and the interior spaces of the following Trier Roman Monuments: Porta Nigra, the Kaiserthermen and the Thermen am Viehmarkt. The mask must be kept on at all times when inside the museum or in the interior spaces of the Roman Monuments. Masks can be purchased at the ticket office if needed.
Exceptions apply for children under the age of six and people with health-related or physical restrictions that prevent them from wearing a mask (a medical certificate is required as proof).
- A distance of at least 1.5 metres from other visitors and museum staff must be maintained at all times
This measure does not apply to members of the same family or household.
- Avoid forming groups in front of the entrance and in the exhibition rooms/areas.
- Please observe the maximum number of visitors permitted per room/area.

- The tour of the Rheinisches Landesmuseum Trier and Roman Monuments Porta Nigra, the Kaiserthermen and the Thermen am Viehmarkt has been designed as a one-way route and will stay this way until further notice.
- We have put hand disinfection stations in place at regular distances throughout our sites.

Unfortunately, we are currently unable to offer the following services in the RHEINISCHES LANDESMUSEUM TRIER:
